INITIALS _____ Coverage and duration. Drive Max Used Cars LLC (Dealer) provides this complimentary limited warranty to the buyer identified above. Coverage begins at delivery and ends 14 calendar days later or after 500 additional miles, whichever occurs first. Only mechanical failure of internally lubricated, moving components inside the engine or transmission is covered. Dealer will repair or replace a covered failed component, at its option, and pay 100% of covered parts and labor, with no deductible.

INITIALS _____ Excluded components. Engine and transmission accessories, seals, gaskets, fluid leaks, electrical and electronic components, sensors, control modules, and all other components or systems are excluded from this limited warranty. Accessories include alternators, starters, water pumps and air conditioning compressors. Routine maintenance is not covered. This is not a bumper-to-bumper warranty.

INITIALS _____ Obtaining warranty service. Promptly report a failure to Dealer's General Manager at the address above or the phone number on your purchase agreement. Provide the VIN, mileage and symptoms before authorizing repairs; Dealer will arrange inspection and covered repairs. Stop driving if continued use could worsen damage. An otherwise covered failure is not excluded solely because its repair is completed after the warranty expires.

INITIALS _____ Other coverage and as is acknowledgment. Dealer provides no additional express repair coverage unless separately agreed in writing. Any AS IS language means only that no additional express dealer coverage is provided. It does not disclaim implied warranties, including merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, or other rights that cannot lawfully be waived. Repairs outside this warranty, any applicable separate coverage and legal obligations are the buyer's responsibility.

INITIALS _____ Separate service contract. A purchased service contract is separate and governed by its own coverage, exclusions, deductible and claim procedures. Purchasing or declining a service contract does not change this dealer warranty or waive legal rights.
